Valentina Takes Discord Down!?

12th June, 2025. A normal day in the server, until all of a sudden Envy comes up and says and I quote "people are getting terminated, apparently valentina got terminated". This rose a lot of confusion between people and everyone started checking up on Valentina. Whenever you would try to jump to any of Valentina's messages, it would show "This person is likely a spammer, you can't jump to their message". People were all confused but then Valentina came back and got a hold of the situation. She states that she got kicked from discord for being "suspicious" and Discord thought she got hacked and DM banned her. Making her unable to DM people but she was able to talk in servers.

After 10 minutes of this happening, Discord suddenly started breaking. People were unable to send attachments of any kind. It became slow and took longer than usual to send messages. People then remembered that Valentina got DM banned sometime ago and thought Valentina took down Discord! Eventually Discord came back up normal and it never got confirmed whether that mystery was true or not. Here are what some of the witnesses has to say:

"Valentina had her "if I go down we all go down together" ahh moment LOOOLLL. Everyone was tryna play with Valentina asking her to dm within hours n stuff but then soon enough, everyone else ended up not being able to send images 🐞🐞🐞🐞 instant karma? idk i think val pooped at discord HQ meow" - Aurora

"discord is stupir" - Valentina
